We are accepting orders for "Mahzor Lev Shalem" for Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur

5780

Many have asked about purchasing this highly acclaimed, updated High Holy Days prayer book for your own reference, and for use at NHC during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Published in 2010 by the Rabbinical Assembly, this new mahzor presents a complete liturgy, restoring many traditional prayers that had not been included in earlier mahzorim. It contains a variety of commentaries from classical and modern-day rabbis, gender-sensitive translations, and "choreography" instructions as to when to sit, stand, bow, etc. English transliterations are offered for all prayers and lines recited aloud by the congregation. The page layout surrounds prayers with a variety of English commentaries and readings, as one finds in classical rabbinic commentaries.

While we are not currently in a position to transfer over to using this prayer book on the High Holy Days, based on interest, we will be accepting personal orders from congregants who wish to purchase this mahzor, either for your own use, or as a dedicated book for congregational use. (Note: Rabbi has created a page conversion chart for those who wish to use it during High Holy Day services at NHC. Rabbi also has a copy of this Mahzor if you wish to review it.)
